RINEHOLE

THE
SENIOR CLASS
PRESENTS
SHOW
IN TOWN

Reflections

Reflecting upon our earlier years,
Arriving at school, our eyes full of tears,
We were under the big top, for the very first time.
Our nerves were unsettled, our eyes opened wide.
The show was beginning, so we all found a seat.
What would we find here and whom would we meet?

The ringmaster appeared and put us at rest;
He welcomed us warmly and expected the best,
For the fees that we paid here were earning the show,
And as the acts would continue, our minds would grow.
Many acts were frightening and we sometimes got bored.
But the vendors showed up, offering things as reward.

Our day is now ending, and there are things we should face.
We must leave this big top, the world is our place.
One final applause to the ringmaster and show,
The circus enthralled us and helped us to grow.
Our memories are endless and full of directions.
To make our lives richer, look back on Reflections.

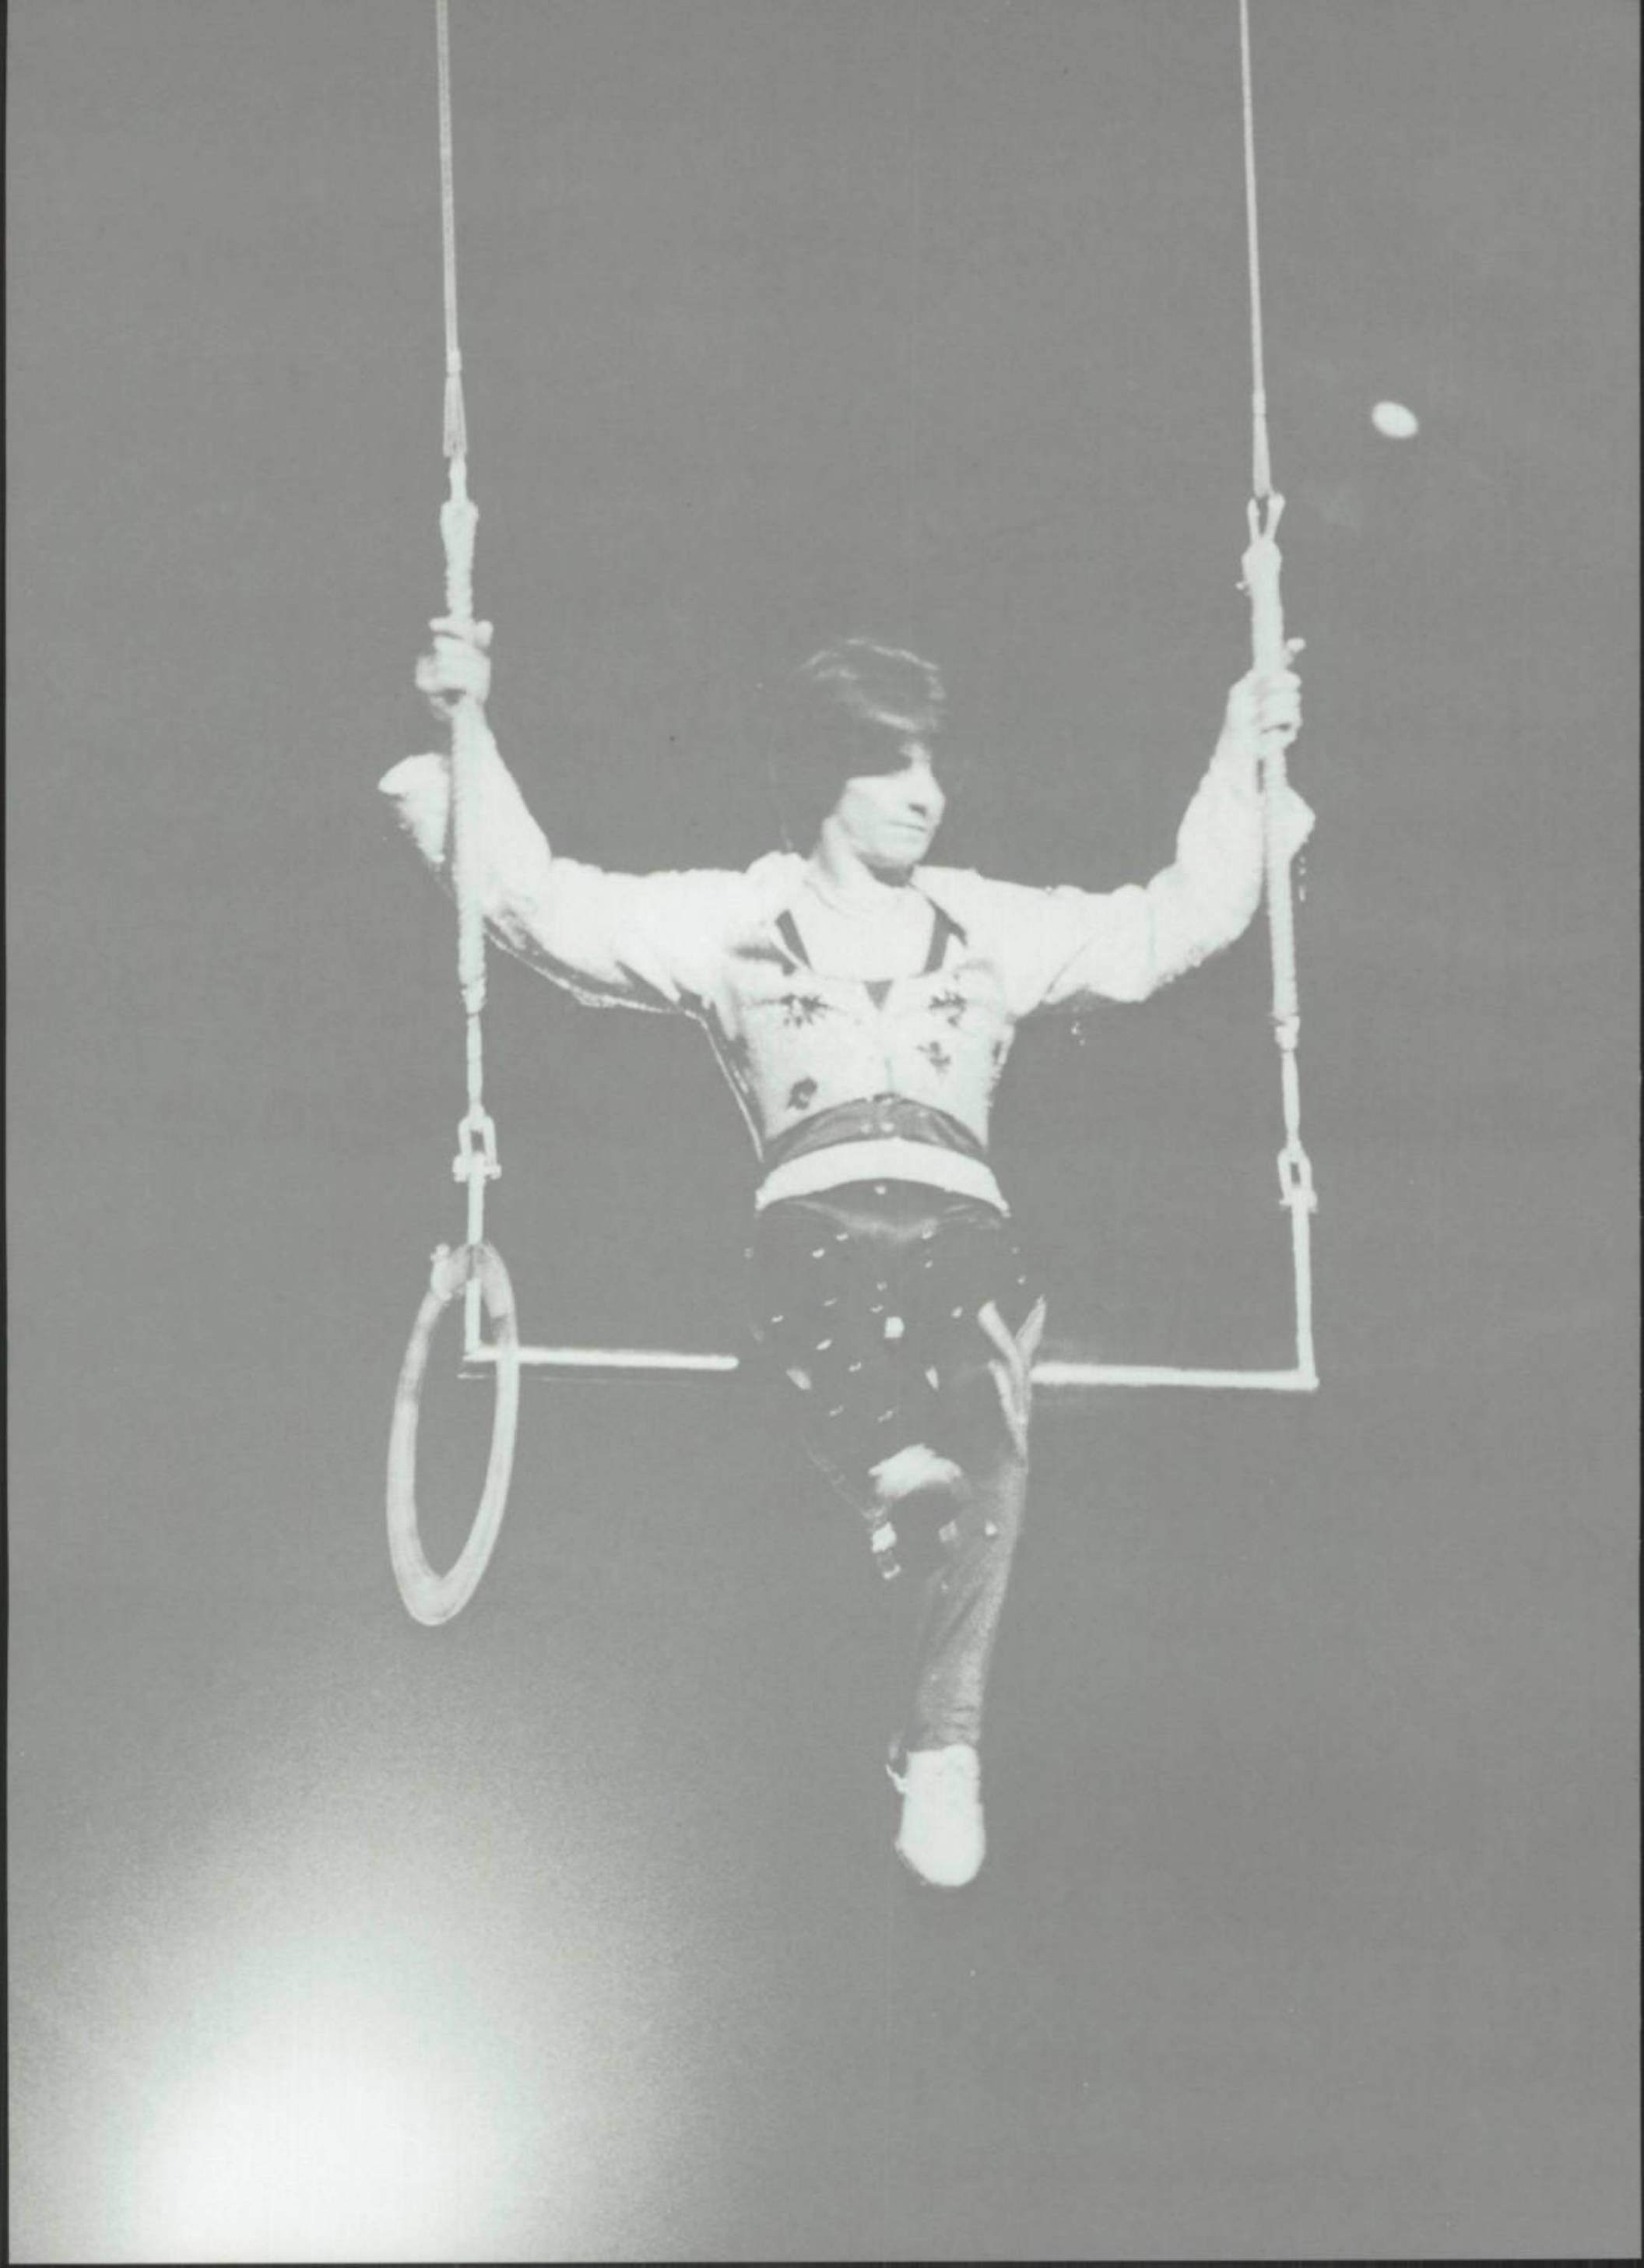
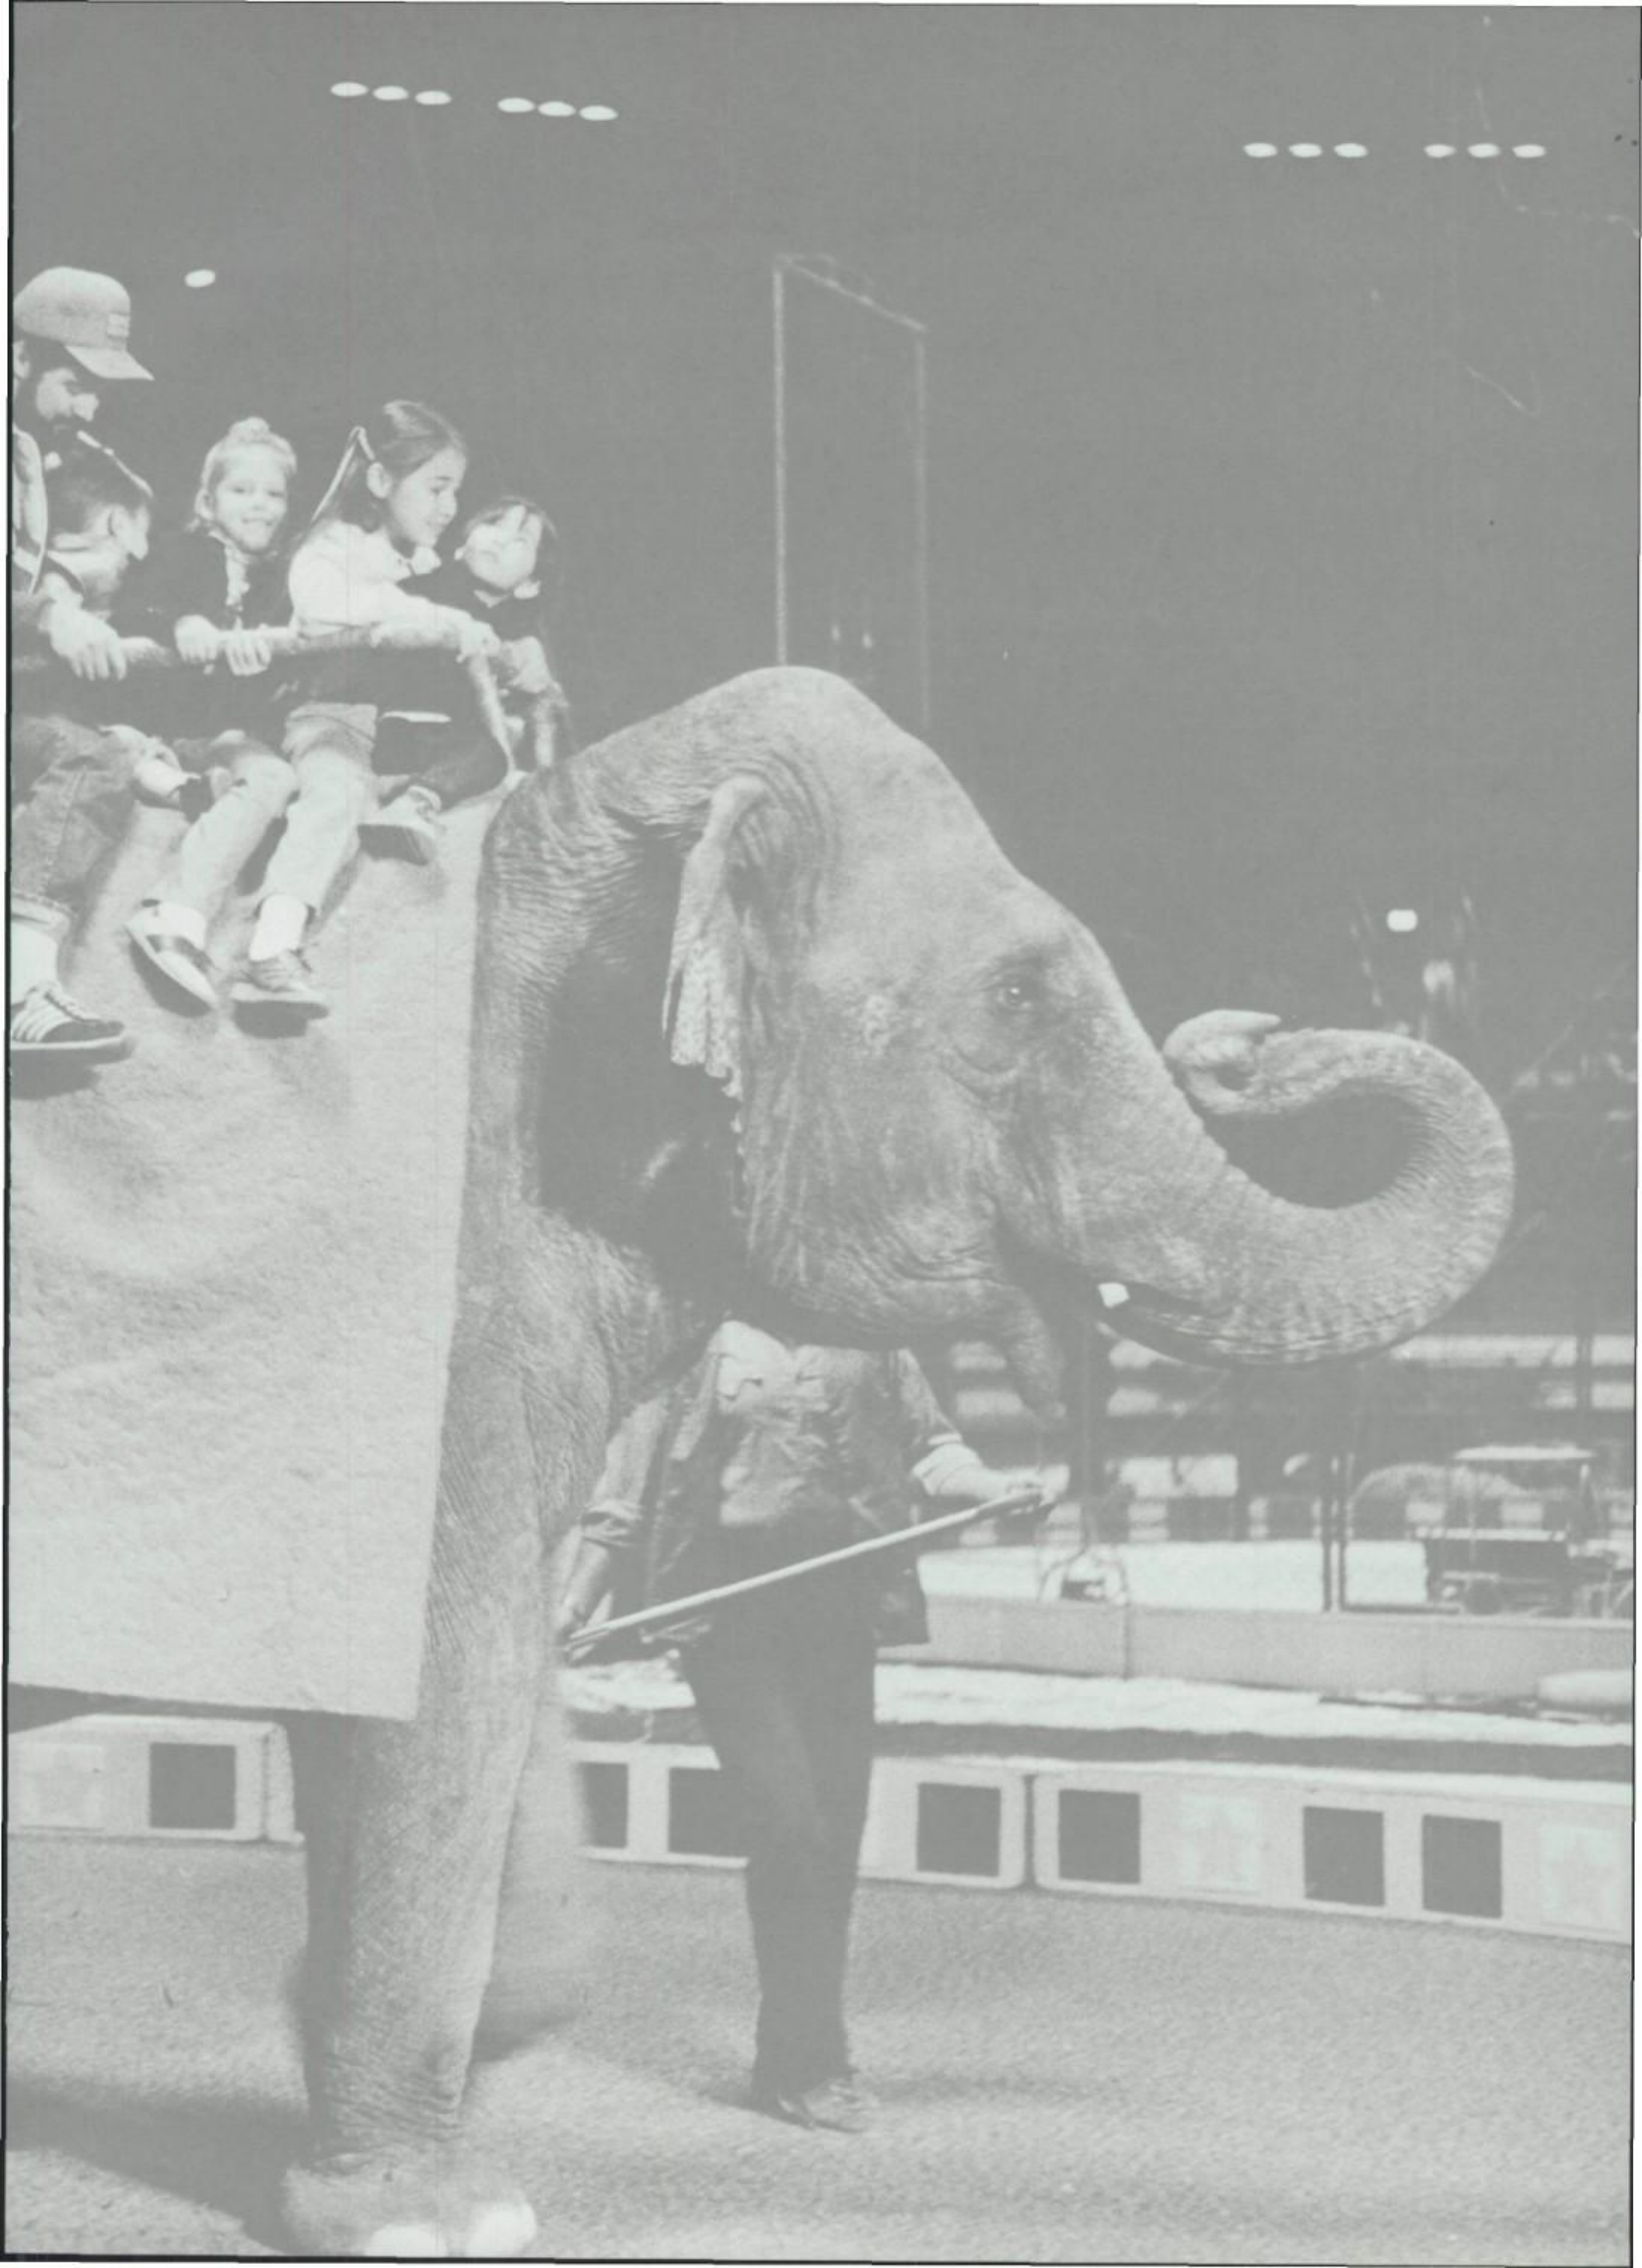
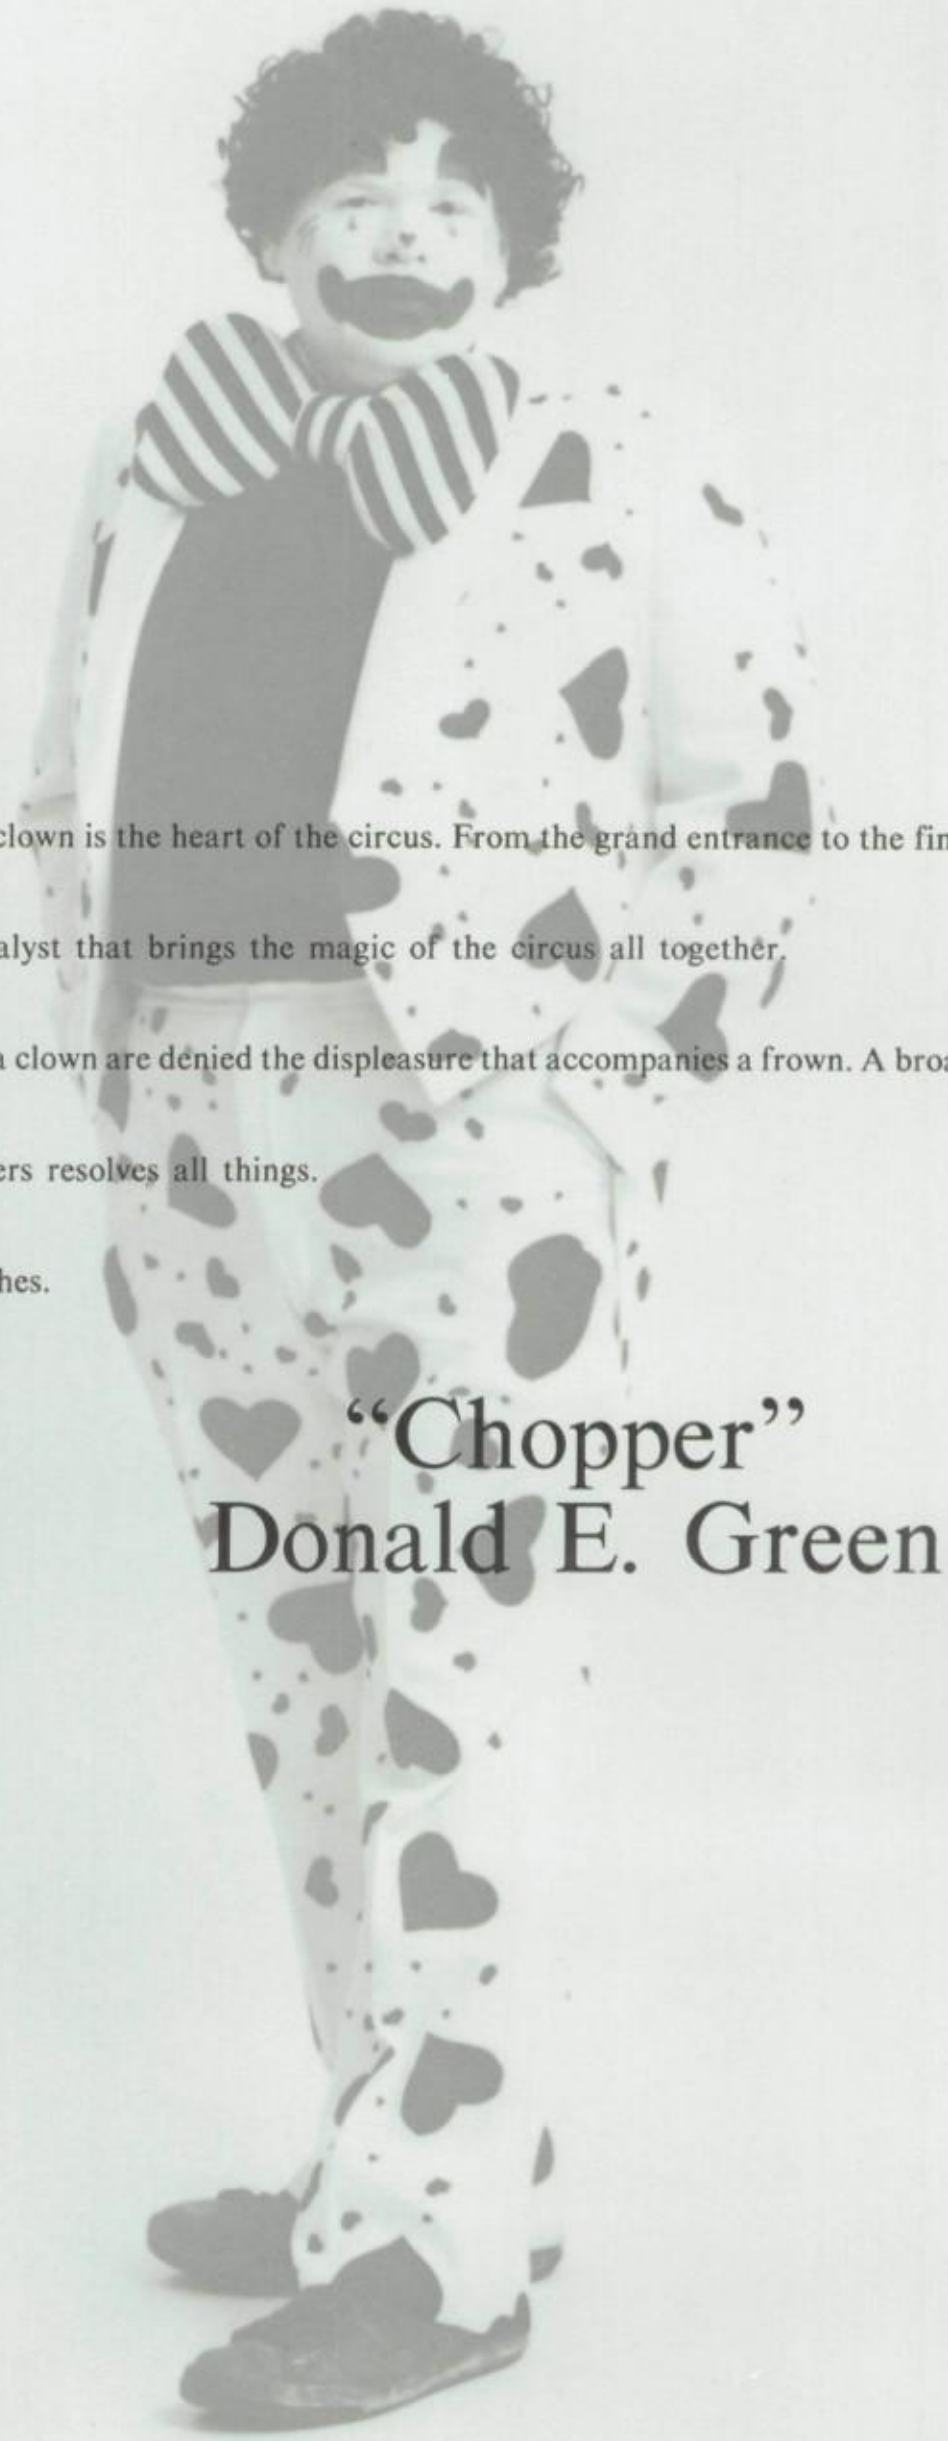
TANK







It has often been said that the clown is the heart of the circus. From the grand entrance to the final curtain call the clown is the catalyst that brings the magic of the circus all together.

All who enter into the world of a clown are denied the displeasure that accompanies a frown. A broad smile and a shrug of the shoulders resolves all things.

Congratulations and Best Wishes.

"Chopper"
Donald E. Green
